Mount Lighthouse of Light [Valencia of Alcantara (Caceres) - SPAIN]

The seer speaks with our Mother:

My Mother, I ask you for all these children of yours who are here today, whom You have brought here, who carry in their hearts and desire an answer from Your Heart to their hearts. Save them, care for them, purify them, comfort them, that they may be holy.

Mother of Love and Mercy, we beg Your Divine Heart for the salvation of the whole world as you desire. Ask it of the Almighty Father, the God of gods, Infinite Love, so that, in His Divine Heart, together with His Son Jesus and the Holy Spirit, He may make the earth cleaner, healthier, and purer. I ask You, Mother, with all my heart, in my smallness, my nothingness. I thank you for having brought us here to Your House of Love to be with you on this great day of your anniversary.

Our Mother begins her message:

My little ones, my children, may you have peace in your hearts and the light of My Light in your souls. Meditate on MATTHEW, do not forget it, my children. Do it over the next two months. Meditate on the Gospel of My Son written by Matthew for the salvation of the world. Meditate on it.

Today is a great day for this Place, My House, your House. How beautiful it is to see so many children here by my side! How could I not bless you? You are warriors to come in this heat that, as you say in the world, is suffocating. This is nothing, my children, compared to the fire of Hell. Endure this, my children, these little crosses. Do not complain. How many of my children are lying in beds of suffering, dying, year after year, bedridden with some incurable illness! Do not complain, my children. You have everything; you have health. And if you have some illness, if you are here, it is because My God and your God has brought you here to heal you and help you carry your little crosses, always saying, "Your will be done."

Look, today many Angels are with me, and the saints, especially one in particular, Saint Elizabeth of Portugal, a great queen. She gave away everything; she detached herself from everything. With all the wealth she had, she gave it all to the poor. That is what pleases My Lord, your God: give without expecting anything in return. But man is selfish. He wants more, more, more power. Where are you going, if you are going to leave it all behind—in one year, five years, ten years, twenty years, forty years? What use is it, if in the end it is the soul that must be saved? My children, think for a moment. The treasures of the earth are worth nothing.

I have said so many times that you see the poor on the streets and say in your hearts, “It will be for drugs; it will be for drunkenness; it will be for a life of vice.” No, My children. Just as those children of Mine are now, one day you yourselves could be begging. Do not criticize. Do not criticize your brothers and sisters. They are creatures of the same Father. If these children of Mine have entered that infernal world, it is because the Devil has entered them and does not let them discern. But you, all people, have a good inclination and a bad inclination. Draw near to the good one; leave the bad one. But why can you not be holy, my children? So many years praying, so many years going to church, so many years speaking and talking, and then you gossip, you speak badly of your brother, you are at odds with your wives, with your husbands, with your children. What charity and what love do you have? You must reflect. You must love. Heaven is gained by loving with a pure, clean heart.

It is not because I tell you this, my children, that you should think I am reproaching you or scolding you. No, My children. There is only one love: the Love of God above all things, and your neighbor as yourself—charity, fraternity. Why these delusions of speaking badly about one another? Why? Where does this lead, to Hell? As you do, so will Heaven, your Heavenly Father and My God, do. He desires uprightness. Everything He gives is good. He is kind, charitable, loving, merciful. Even if pain pierces you through, as it says, and makes of me a crucifix, may I feel that You are my Mother, that I am Your child; in joy and in affliction, in my life and in my agony, look upon me with compassion; do not leave me, my Mother.

My children, you must be kinder. You must go to God in truth and not with lies, not with deceit. You deceive yourselves when you speak badly, or criticize, or harm your brother, your child, your husband, your wife, or yourselves. Hypocrisy is of no use anymore. If you truly desire and love your God, you must keep the Commandments that God once gave to Moses, the prophet Moses. But man was evil, and Moses threw the Commandments to the ground and said that until mankind recovered that love for its God, mankind would never again truly be clean.

Every day, instead of going toward God, people remove Him from their lives, push Him away, and My children say, “He is an old-fashioned God. No, we want a modern God.” And what is modernity today for mankind? Going around naked, sins of the flesh, drunkenness, misery? Where are you going?

Do you think, my children, that such ways lead to Heaven? No. Humility, perseverance, penance, prayer, the Tabernacle, the Tabernacle, Mass, processions. No adultery, none of all the things man does: abortions, euthanasia, wickedness, killing. Who are they to destroy the work of God, of My God, your God? Who are men? In a single second He could strike down the world.

That is why you are seeing, and you will see more, earthquakes, fire, everything that destroys. But My God, your God, does not desire this. Yet He permits all the evil that man does so that other people may seek salvation, may seek to kneel and ask forgiveness. It has become common for people to be at odds with one another, yet you go to church. Why do you go to church if from time to time you are at odds with one another? What kind of repentance is this, my children?

Seek God, the strength of God. And above all I tell you: faith. From the moment you wake up until you go to bed: “Increase my faith, Lord. I am nothing without you. You are everything to me, Lord. You are my way, you are the Truth, You are the Life. I always want to be by your side. I want to save my soul, because this comes to an end; that is Eternity.”

Seek God in your littleness. Change your hearts. Do not be like the heads of government who say they want to sign peace while they are signing war. That is why there is so much war, so much hatred, because of power, because of man's pride.

Do not be Cains. Be Abel, whom My God, your God, rewarded with Heaven. Become strong in love. Seek love. Do not speak more than necessary. Do not speak badly of anyone, not even of those dearest to you. Pray for those who are confused, for those who live lives that are not good in the world. You yourselves set an example of humility.

My children, all those of you who can remain for the procession or through the night, everything will be blessed. And I want there to be a procession with torches, with candles. When you arrive at your homes, light those candles and let them burn until they are consumed. But I tell those of you who have someone sick, or who have some special intention, ask it of me during those moments of light, because I am the Beacon of Light and I give Light to My children.

Keep in mind, my children, that Light is what gives life. Take refuge in the Light of My Heart. I am the Beacon of Light. Whoever comes to me will always have the Light. Ask me on this day so beautiful for you and beautiful for Heaven. And ask the Holy Spirit, My Spouse, to give you His Gifts, those Gifts, the seven Gifts that He gives so that you may have life and be humble, simple, strong, warriors in these places where I appear throughout the whole world.

Be helpful, be loving, all of you be holy. That is what I come to earth to tell you. As My Son once said: "Be holy, as your Heavenly Father is holy." Do not come saying that you cannot, because that neither can nor should be said. You must be Christians, Catholics, Apostolic, Roman. Holy Mother Church proclaims it: be holy, holy, holy...

And now I am going to bless all of you, everything you have within you and here, and everything that is yet to come. I thank you once again for being by my side, because I am the Mother of Love and I welcome all my children beneath My Mantle.

I love you. And before all else, My God the Creator Father blesses you, My Son of Love, the Holy Spirit My Sanctifying Spouse, and I, your Mother Miriam, Heart of Mary, Beacon of Light, Beacon of Light, Beacon of Light.

Everything is blessed. Sing to your God, sing to My Heart, sing to Heaven, to the Saints, to the Angels, to the Archangels, to the Heavenly Court, so that one day you may come with Me to the Dwellings that My God, your God, prepared for you before you were born. But beware of the Devil's temptations. I have already told you: seek God in every moment of your lives, because My God, your God, My Son, the Holy Spirit, the Savior, and I, your Mother, will always be with you in your temptations if you ask with faith, love, and affection.

Goodbye, My children. Goodbye, My little ones. Goodbye, My children.
